NUMB. 1618

TUESDAY, AUGUST 26. 1740.

91:1616

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland; by which we have a Confirmation by Letters from Frankfurt, Cologne, and Utrecht, of the Choice of the New Pope, viz. Cardinal Prosper Lambertini, a Native and Archbishop of Bologna: With these Particulars by Advices from Rome, dated on the Day of his Election; viz.

The Conclave is now at an End; and Proclamation is just made to the People, That Cardinal Lambertini is chose Pope, to the general Surprise of all Mankind; because no body dream'd that this Cardinal would be elect'd, who had not once been propos'd. The Affair is look'd upon as an Expedient for the Satisfaction of the two Parties. The Zealots being absolutely resolv'd not to recede from their Opposition to Cardinal Aldobrandi, and his Party being oblig'd not to give him up. That Cardinal had on the 1st Instant O. S. 33 Votes, which Additional Vote was believ'd to be that of the Venetian Cardinal Bezozio; when his Party hugg'd themselves, to think that they wanted but one Vote, and on the 2d, 3d and 4th, there was a great Bustle to get that Suffrage; but the Zealots found Means to bring off the Vote that had left them, and on the 5th all Day and Night were spent in Treating on both Sides: But at length it pleas'd God to determine Things so, that on the 6th in the Morning Cardinal Lambertini had the 34 Votes necessary for being chose Pope; and hereupon all the Cardinals went to congratulate him. He excus'd himself at first, saying that he thought himself too feeble to bear the Weight of the Papal Dignity and Function; but he was at length prevail'd on to accept it by the Solicitations of his Colleagues, who told him that his Refusal would be an Affront to the Almighty Providence. His Family was always reckon'd as one of the most illustrious in the State of Bologna, having contracted Alliances with the most considerable Families of the Ecclesiastick and other States of Italy. While he was Archbishop of Bologna he was generally belov'd there for his Affability, Charity, and Disinterestness. He has compos'd several Treats of Divinity, in which he has discover'd a great deal of Moderation and Candour, Qualities from whence 'tis conjectur'd that his Pontificate will be happy and quiet: And as he is at most but 65 Years of Age, and enjoys a good State of Health, there is Reason to hope that he will live long enough to remedy the Misfortunes and Calamities of the Subjects of the Ecclesiastick State. His Way of Thinking as to Doctrinal Disputes, leaves no Room to doubt that he will employ his Pastoral Care to put an End to the Divisions in the Church. Nestorism, which has been so vehemently exclaim'd against, will not be a Thing to be apprehended in the Reign of his Pope, who has no Brothers, Nephews, nor any other Kindred to advance. By assuming the Name of Benedict XIV. he shews his Veneration for the Memory of Pope Benedict XIII. by whom he was created a Cardinal.

Ratisbon, Aug. 22. N. S. Some of the Ministers who reside here have receiv'd Instructions from their Princes with regard to the Ratification of the Treaty of Peace between France and the Emperor. The Bavarian Minister has declar'd, that the Elector his Master would have the Affair deferr'd for some time longer. The Minister of the Elector of Trier has mention'd the Objections rais'd by his Master against the Regulation of the Limits between Lorrain and the States of the Empire. The Family of Nassau Saarluck has also demand'd, that in the Regulation of those Limits Regard be had to his Claims of certain Territories bordering on Lorrain.

Piemont, Aug. 20. N. S. We are assur'd that a Marriage is concluded between the Archduchess Mary-Anne, the Emperor's second Daughter, and Prince Charles of Lorrain, and that it will be declar'd at Court in ten Days at farthest. Among other Difficulties start'd by the Turkish Ambassador with regard to his Publick Entry, he demand'd, that when the Prince d'Aversperg and the Count de Wurmbbrand went to conduct him to an Audience of the Emperor, he should not be oblig'd to meet them, nor reconduct them at his Return; that the Principal Persons of his Retinue should march in the same Body with the Officers of the Emperor's Household; that the Janizaries and Spahis of his Guard might carry their Arms upright when they pass'd before the Palace La Favorita; that he should not be oblig'd to take off his Slippers as he enter'd the Hall of Audience; that whereas the Emperor, according to the Ceremonial, gives his Hand under his Cloak to the Turkish Ambassadors, this Minister should have the Honour, as well as the Christian Ambassadors, to kiss the Emperor's Hand; and finally, that he should have his Second Audience, not of the Count de Harrach, but of the Great Duke of Tuscany, whose Dignity as General in Chief of the Emperor's Armies was, he thought, equivalent to that of the Grand Vizir. But Yesterday M. de Weber went again to Schwechat to declare to the said Ambassador, that if he persisted in his Objections, the Emperor would send to Constantinople to complain of it to the Porte: Whereupon the said Minister has at last determin'd to sign a Convention with regard to the Ceremonial of his Publick Entry, and of his first Audience of the Emperor, so that 'tis believ'd there will be no more Delay in this Matter, and that the Entry will be made on the 25th Inst.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, Aug. 23. Thursday last a very melancholy Accident happen'd at a House behind the Full-moon in Stokes-croft, between a Gentleman of Chepstow and another. It seems a Dispute arose on the Sequestration of a Legacy; and the latter imagining himself to be ill used, drew out a Pistol and shot him in the Neck; and afterwards clapp'd another to his own Head, and fir'd into the Back Part of his Skull, where the Ball lodg'd, and was flatten'd in a surprising Manner. The Balls are both extract'd, and they both seem to be in a fair Way of Recovery.

Saturday about 10 at Night ended the Affizes for the County of Somerset at Bridgwater, when 13 Persons receiv'd Sentence of Death, viz. Edward Taylor, for High Treason, in counterfeiting the current Coin of this Kingdom; John Millard, Cornelius York, and George Masters, the three notorious Villains who committed so many Robberies and unheard of Cruelties on Bedminster Down and elsewhere; William Derrick, for a Robbery on Busselton Common; Richard Knap, William Holliday, Matthew Leigh, John Bishop, John Caswell, and John Symmons, for divers Felonies; David Curtis, for Burglary; and Edward Hicks, the noted Horse-stealer.

Knap, Leigh, Bishop, and Symmons, are repriv'd, and the other Nine order'd for Execution.

Millard is to be hung in Chains on Bedminster Down, and York and Masters on Busselton Common.

L O N D O N.

Extract of a Letter from Exeter, Aug. 23. I have once more the Pleasure to tell you that Sir John Norris sail'd Yesterday Morning at Eight o'Clock with the whole Fleet; and as the Wind has been exceeding good ever since, and is still so, I hope he'll soon get clear of the Channel. I am glad to do Justice to any of the Captains of our Ships of War, the Commanders of the Argyle and Kensington deserve great Praise for their Care of the Fleet, especially the former, who took one of his Fleet being a dull Sailer in Tow for more than 300 Leagues, and every Night made up his Convoy, and did every thing in his Power to defend and protect them.

We have certain Advice that the Spanish Fleet under the Command of the Conde de los Torres, consisting of 12 Ships of War of the Line, 3 Frigates, 1 Bomb-vessel, and 1 Advice-boat, were seen on the 2d Inst. N. S. off of Cape Finisterre, steering S. W.

The Charming Molly, Holleran, from Drontheim in Norway for Limerick, is lost near the Isle of Arran in Ireland.

The Dolphin Schooner, Nathaniel Carr, Master, of and from New England for Cork, laden with Barrel Staves, is lost on a great Rock call'd the R. an Craigh, in the Bay of Bantry, and one Passenger drown'd.

Yesterday Morning dy'd at his House at Woodford Bridge John Gould, Esq; formerly Member of Parliament for Shoreham, and in the Direction of the East India Company.

The same Day the Duke and Duchess of Newcastle's came to Town from his Grace the Duke of Leeds's Seat at Kiveton in Yorkshire.

Last Night their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales came to Town from Chisden to his House in St. James's-square.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales is far advanc'd in her Pregnancy.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Dunmore lies dangerously ill at Tunbridge Wells.

Yesterday a Soldier belonging to the First Regiment of Foot-guards receiv'd 300 Lashes at the Camp at Hounslow, and was afterwards drum'd out thro' the Three Regiments, for beating his Comrade's Dinner.

Yesterday Morning about Four o'Clock, Samuel Creeke, who was condemn'd at the last Affize at Kingston upon Thames for robbing the Western and Portsmouth Mails, was carried from the New Gaol in Southwark, guarded by Six Horse-Grenadier-Guards on Horseback, to Bagshot-heath in the County of Surrey, where he was executed, and afterwards hung in Chains on the said Heath, near the Place where the noted Golden Farmer hang.

August 21. 1740.

To the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Surry.

HAVING had the Honour to be nominated a Candidate to represent your County in the ensuing Parliament, at the General Meeting held at Epsom on Wednesday the 20th of August Instant;

I beg the Favour of your Votes and Interest; which will highly oblige,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient,

Humble Servant,

HENRY VINCENT.

Admiralty Office, August 1, 1740.

HIS Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth; as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, Woolwich, and Sheerness; and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, their Share of the Bounty granted by Parliament; these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 16th of September next, at Eight o'clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

This Day is Published,

The Sixth Edition, with material Additions, Alterations and Amendments, of

A Treatise of the Diseases of the Head.

Brain, and Nerves, more especially of the Palsy, Apoplexy, Lethargy, Epilepsy, Convulsions, Cramp, Vertigo, Megrim, inveterate Head-ach, &c. with Directions for their thorough Cure, and how these and many other terrible Nervous Distempers may be assuredly prevented, as well as certainly cur'd, and consequently many Lives saved by Medicines therein, in English, prescribed, without the usual Reserve.

To which is subjoined,

A Discourse of MELANCHOLY in Men, and VAPORS in Women; explicating the whole Train of Symptoms, various Degrees, and real Cause of those wretched Maladies; and discovering a short and most certain Method of Cure, by safe and easy Remedies therein also candidly preferred, and by which Persons of either Sex, who are unhappily affected with Melancholy or Vapours, may absolutely cure themselves of those pernicious Distempers in a short time, without any Fatigue or Disorder. By a Physician.

London, printed and sold by the Author's Appointment, only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in High-street in the Minories. Price bound 2 s.

Concerning GLEETS and Seminal Weakness of all Kinds.

ALL judicious Physicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure than Stubborn GLEETS and Seminal Weaknesses, whether occasion'd by too severe purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollution sui, or any other Cause whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Consequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain, since they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infect the whole Nervous System, often bring on Hectic Fevers, a Tabes Dorsalis, or Consumption of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Consumption, which frequently terminate in Death itself.

All such, therefore, who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old or Stubborn GLEETS, Seminal Effusions, involuntary Emissions, excessive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakness of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, or Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Urine, would doubtless be glad to meet with a certain, safe, and speedy Cure, which they most assuredly may, by taking only a small Quantity of a transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY, now published for a general Good, after having for many Years been experienced never once to fail perfectly curing the most Stubborn GLEETS known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as well as all other Weaknesses of the Back, Reins, Seminal Vessels, and Urinary Passages, which almost instantly cures, bringing to rights and restoring all those Parts and Passages to their natural Tone and pristine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doses of it only.

This transcendent BALSAMICK RESTRICTIVE ELECTUARY is neither disagreeable to take, nor occasions the least Disorder, but is a wonderful Restorative in all Weakness and Depletion of Constitution of any Kind, and particularly strengthening the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Vessels to an immovable Degree, inasmuch that in any Debility of them, one Dose of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out, and all Persons fatigued with GLEETS or Seminal Weaknesses of any Sort, or Weaknesses of the Urinary Vessels, who take it, will in three Days time find it so very effectual, that they will be most agreeably surpris'd at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accomplish such a safe, speedy and perfect Cure of such difficult Maladies, as GLEETS and Seminal Weaknesses are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been tried in vain; too much cannot be said in its praise. All who ever took it for any of the above-mentioned Purposes have readily declared.

The Price is but 6 s. a Pot, altho' for its absolute Efficacy one Pot alone being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish a Cure, worth ten times as much, and by the Author's special Appointment, is to be had only at Mr. Rastell's Toy-shop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, ready sealed up, with a Box of Instructions, which whomsoever carefully reads will perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakness he is afflicted with exceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignant the Foul Disease is entirely eradicated or not.

NOTE. A New Edition of the Vol. of the same Electuary.
